ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

☐ A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. ( ) § 801 et seq. ( ) § 951 et seq. ( ) § 955(a).

☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

☐ (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

☐ (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C.

☒ § 801 et seq. ☐ § 951 et seq. ☐ § 955(a).

☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).

☐ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

☒ C. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)]

☒ (1) Defendant is charged with fraud and misuse of visas in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1546(a) and conspiracy to defraud the United States in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371.

☐ (4) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and the evidence presented at the detention hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 23 year old citizen of Trinidad who has no legal status in the United States. Immigration Customs and Enforcement has issued a detainer against him.
2. There is no evidence that defendant has any family or employment ties to the United States. He has no known criminal history in the United States.
3. Defendant is charged with fraud and misuse of government documents in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1546(a) and conspiracy to defraud the United States in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371. Defendant faces a potential penalty of up to 25 years in prison on the fraud charge and up to 5 years in prison on the conspiracy charge. Information in the criminal complaint and testimony at the hearing indicate that defendant played a significant role in a scheme to obtain fake Texas drivers licenses and resident alien cards for sale to illegal immigrants.
4. Defendant is a flight risk, and no condition or combination of conditions of release would reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
